

Vanessa Ugatti Intro

Today our speaker is an expert on charging what you're worth, with her own unique story.

She is here to share her magic formula to enable you to create a solid foundation to take charge and get paid what you're worth confidently.

Despite an almost permanent, overwhelming sense of fear and incredibly low self-worth, Vanessa consistently challenged herself, from dropping solo to work in a French-speaking part of Africa, launching a successful business later in life and jumping out of a plane from 10,000 feet up!

By tackling her own self-worth issues head on, she was able to bust through her bs enabling her to see her own genius. This, combined with her natural talent for simple communication, along with a healthy dose of assistance from her subconscious mind, enabled her to help others do the same.

Vanessa helps people go from utterly clueless and powerless to expert and confident when charging their clients, by sharing her TRUE WORTH blueprint which cures this familiar problem.

Described as: "A miracle worker" "magic" and "simply the best", please welcome to the stage, author of Amazon Best Seller, 'True Worth: How to Charge What You're Worth and Get It' ... Vanessa Ugatti.
